Building Homes And Hope

Edisto Habitat for Humanity is a Christian housing ministry that welcomes everyone, regardless of religious preference.

Through volunteer labor and tax-deductible donations of money and materials, Edisto Habitat builds homes with partner families in need of simple, decent housing. Habitat homes are sold to the families at no profit, and financed with affordable, no interest loans.

The approximate cost of a Habitat home in Orangeburg, South Carolina, is $70,000. Homeowners are chosen on the basis of need, ability to pay and willingness to partner. Edisto Habitat raises the money needed to build homes from various sources, such as The Carpenter Club, and uses donated goods and services.

Habitat is not a government agency. Money needed for each home is raised from the kindness of individuals, churches, businesses and civic organizations.

The Carpenter Club

How Does It Work?

The Carpenter Club consists of members who pledge a donation for every home completed by Edisto Habitat (maximum of five per year).

A statement is sent to each member notifying them of the completion of the new home and the amount due. Members are also invited to the dedication of each new home and can see first hand the excitement and gratitude of the new homeowner.

Our Goal

Edisto Habitat has a goal of 1000 Carpenter Club members. Each new member will further insure that we can continue to provide positive alternatives to substandard housing in Orangeburg County.

You can help us build simple, decent affordable homes for our neighbors in need. As a member, 100% of your donation will be used to defray the necessary costs of building a new home for a family in need. This is an easy and meaningful way you can be a part of our ministry.

At Edisto Habitat for Humanity, we build because we believe that everyone, everywhere, should have a healthy, affordable place to call home. More than building homes, we build communities, we build hope and we build the opportunity for families to help themselves out of their poor living conditions.

Your membership in the Carpenter Club will help families break the cycle of poverty and build long-term financial security. With an affordable, stable home, families have more to spend on food, medicine, child care, education and other essentials.
